

MICE

Veliki dio ljudskog iskustva čini mogućnost dijeljenja i razmjena ideja, iskustava i misli. MICE ne čini samo iznajmljivanje konferencijske sale, dogovaranje obroka i rasporeda događaja. To je podsjetnik na suštinu ljudskog društva, da smo svi društvena bića i da je najbolji način za nas da napredujemo i damo svoj doprinos društvu taj da učestvujemo na raznim sastancima, razmjenjujemo ideje, prisustvujemo događajima i zajedno dijelimo osjećaj sreće i zadovoljstva.

A large part of human experience is ability to share and exchange ideas, experiences and thoughts. MICE aren't just about renting a meeting hall, arranging a meal or coming up with event schedule. It's a reminder of what society is really about, that we are all social beings and the best way for us to flourish and to give our contribution to society is by attending meetings and exchange ideas, and by attending events and sharing mutual happiness and feeling of content.
