WITHIN OUR WALLS

- Discover creative Khmer cuisines with our best Khmer chefs.
- Daily Monk Blessing. A traditional Cambodian practise that channels Karma from the prayers.
- Sacred to Buddhists and Hindus alike, the lotus is used in rituals of both religions. In Cambodia, folding the petals exquisitely reveals the heart of the lotus flower. You too can learn how to fold them in various different ways.
- Boules is one of Cambodians' favourite past-times. Mingle with our management for an immersive bowling experience.
- Movie Night! We regularly screen "Megastructure: Angkor Wat", a National Geographic documentary, beside the pool. Popcorn is always readily available.

OUT & ABOUT

- Mystery Dine Around: Experience Siem Reap's gourmet highlights in a single evening tour visiting five different restaurants for a course in each. Choose between Khmer or French cuisine and relax as our dedicated tuk tuk & driver take you all over.
- Pre-order a picnic basket to take with you on a full-day excursion to Angkor Wat, Kulen Mountain, or the countryside surrounding Siem Reap.
- Dive into the local markets of Siem Reap and buy the freshest ingredients for your cooking class led by personal chef guide and instructor.

- Romantic dinner at Villa Chandara. A journey through beautiful countryside beyond Siem Reap to a picturesque wooden building surrounded by rice paddies, and dine delectably.
- Angkor Twilight Cycle Tour: Savour the Angkor scenery in the still evening air just as the town transitions through another spellbinding sunset to evening.
- Arts & Crafts Tour: Traditional Khmer arts and crafts have evolved over aeons. Meanwhile, striking lacquerware and silverware take a multitude of delightful modern forms.

BEYOND SIEM REAP

No more than a couple of hours' flight from countries within the region, Luang Prabang lies in a valley in northern Laos at the confluence of the Mekong and Nam Khan rivers. Here, perched atop a hill, Belmond La Residence Phou Vao enjoys panoramic views of the town below.
