A little slice of paradise

Picturesque, elegant and rich in heritage, Southport has always been a bustling hub of culture bringing the likes of Marlene Dietrich, Pink Floyd and The Beatles to the stage of The Floral Hall Ballroom and welcoming generations of families to its beaches for holidays they cherish forever.

A gem in the North West that's nestled in a 22 mile stretch of stunning coastline, close to Liverpool and Manchester, but far enough away to attract visitors for its own personality and activities. Southport has a magic and we're under its spell.

Every single person we spoke to was friendly, helpful and professional and perhaps even more importantly just did whatever was asked, with a perfect 'can do' attitude.

I have had lots of comments from fellow trustees of NODA saying pretty much the same thing. The technical crew deserve a medal – they were simply magnificent and by hook or by crook everything was done and the sound was simply perfect thank you all so much.

All the comments above relate not purely to the Waterfront but also to the hotel who demonstrated the same approach and attitude. A million times – Thank You!

NODA National President
