Historical City Tour Land & Water Highlights

Copenhagen Land & Water Highlights

Our local expert guide will pick you up and takes you on a walking tour through the heart of Copenhagen. Strolling through small undiscovered streets you will have an opportunity to hear about the history of the city.

You will experience historical buildings of Copenhagen. Walk up to the top of the Round tower for a spectacular view over the city. From here we take you for a cozy walk in a vibrant and very popular Kings garden, where you will be taken back in time at Rosenborg castle – filled with old Royal jewelry and much more. After tour in castle you will be joining at Amalienborg castle to witness change of Royal guards.

Thereafter, by Amalienborg – home of Danish Royal family, guided canal boat tour will start. A private boat will take you around the harbor and through the idyllic canals where our guide will tell you about Copenhagen's beautiful churches, castles, old listed houses, new buildings and all other sights of interest. A live Jazz band will play during the canal boat tour; the perfect background music while discovering Copenhagen from the water.

Size of the group for walking tour max 25 per guide(min 20pax)

Duration: est. 4 hrs. ( max 25 persons per guide)

Comfortable foot wear recommended as there will be a lot of walking.

Welcome Dinner

Peder Oxe

Located in an old building filled with character, the Danish and French inspired restaurant opened in December 1975 on the beautiful square, Gråbrødretorv. Peder Oxe has been a favorite with the residents and tourists alike for a long time.

Peder Oxe is an old-fashioned kind of place for people who like classic dishes such as the restaurant's hugely popular steaks served simply without any kind of contemporary reinterpretation. Dine outside on the lively square or, in the winter months, next to the delightful open fireplace.

Type of Food: Danish/French/Steakhouse
Capacity: 160
Private room: Yes

Danish Design Tour

Copenhagen through the eyes of Design

We begin the tour with seeing the Danish crown jewels, still worn by our Queen and by Crown princess Mary, in the beautiful Rosenborg Castle. Then we move up in time to visit the famous Danish interior design objects at the Design Museum Denmark, where you will see furniture by Finn Juhl and Arne Jacobsen among others.

We will also find the hidden and appealing special fashion and design shops in the narrow streets of old Copenhagen. This will give you an opportunity to bring home items for yourself or for your best friends. Wind down your tour on the pedestrian shopping street of Strøget at the famous Royal Copenhagen porcelain House.

Duration: 4 hours

Capacity: Max 25 persons per guide

Lunch

Almanak

Originally the building, which today constitutes Almanak, was used as a custom house and was called Gammel Toldkammer. It was built in 1937 by the Danish architect and royal building inspector Kristoffer Varming. The Almanak is the house's beating heart, where a stylish and modern interpretation of Danish food is served. The restaurant is decorated in elegant Scandinavian design, and the atmosphere is relaxed and welcoming.

The driving force for Almanak's kitchen, as the name suggests, is to use local, seasonal produce — in other words — almanac is the taste of Denmark year-round.

Type of food: Nordic

Capacity: 120

Private room: No, semi-private possible

Workshop

Royal Copenhagen workshop

Since its establishment in 1775, the Danish Royal Porcelain is well known around the world. The first pieces manufactured were dining services for the royal family, and some even personalized their own dinnerware, such as King Christians the 7th's; Flora Danica.

All of the pieces in the shop are hand painted, and each artist sign their masterpiece on the back. The brand is best known by their recognizable blue color, and the factory mark: Three wavy lines – each symbolizing the bridges of Denmark.

Get a first-hand experience and release your inner artist with the detailed art of hand painting Royal Copenhagen porcelain, when the highly skilled porcelain painters from Royal Copenhagen will share their knowledge and little tricks, on how to create a piece of art on a cup. You will paint directly on raw porcelain with the well-known blue pigment.

Duration: Approx. 1,5 hours

Capacity: Min. 8 & Max. 15 people per workshop

Dinner

Höst

Höst is located at the corner of the streets Nørre Farimagsgade and Ahlefeldtsgade. The gastronomic foundation for Höst is Nordic produce and the turn of the season, combining traditional methods of cooking and flavors with a modern understanding of Nordic food as well as its future.

Höst has stucco brick walls along with wooden frameworks, uniting a simple and rustic interior design with disciplined architecture and the delights of the countryside. Restaurant Höst has won three international design awards, including the award as the world's best-designed restaurant at the Restaurant & Bar Design Awards.

Type of food: Nordic

Capacity: 120

Almost forgotten ...

One of the world's largest and oldest open air museums!

Spread across 86 acres of land, the museum houses more than 50 farms, mills and houses from the period 1650-1940.

Described as "Old Denmark" the Open-Air Museum is a place where you enter a different world: the countryside of historic Denmark. It is not difficult to imagine yourself transported centuries back in time, strolling along the gravel roads and visiting the fully-furnished homes of the people of the past, such as the peasant, the wealthy miller, the village weaver or the inmates of the poorhouse.

Fairytale-writer Hans Christians Andersen himself, will welcome you and show how the Danes lived back in the days, their traditions and customs. During the visit, you will also have the opportunity to experience horse carriage with typical Danish horses, the Jutland horse. A coffee and cake stop will be included during the visit inside one of the houses of the Open-Air Museum. Actors wearing typical clothes from back of the days will be taking care of you during the coffee break.

Duration: Approx. 3 hours

Capacity: Max. 25 people per tour
