of the Kingdom's master craftsmen. Each space showcases their specific creating timeless settings for memorable events.*

THE RIADS

Guests at Royal Mansour Marrakech have their own private domain: a riad (traditional Moroccan house). Sitting rooms, bedrooms and terraces on three levels offer beautiful spaces and utmost privacy. The hotel has 53 riads, with one to four bedrooms, from 140sq/m to 1,800sq/m.

Each riad has its own interior design, featuring craftsmanship by leading Moroccan artisans. Silks, brocades, original and contemporary works of art hang alongside custom furniture. The largest riads can accommodate 30 to 80 people for private celebrations.

THE PRIVATE SALONS

The reception rooms at the Royal Mansour resemble those of a private house: painted and carved cedarwood ceiling, gleaming pink marble floor and, most splendid of all, walls clad in jade-green onyx. With 160sq/m of space, the private salons can accommodate up to 80 people for a sit-down dinner and 160 people for cocktails.

The space opens onto a large terrace, and is bathed in natural light. The Royal Mansour's salons are perfect for larger-scale events as moucharabieh room dividers can be deployed to create spaces for more intimate gatherings.
