IGUASSU FALLS

WITHIN OUR WALLS

- We have tennis courts on site.
- Order imaginative cocktails at Bar Tarobá and relax to the majestic sounds of the Falls.
- Relax in our truly indulgent Spa with treatments based on products from Amazon.
- Spend moments with your family by enjoying our swimming pools for kids and adults, heated throughout the winter months.

OUT & ABOUT

- Relax or enjoy a nice bike ride through the National Park of Iguacu.
- Go behind the scenes of the bird park, home to more than 160 rare and colorful species, on a 90-minute tour. You'll gain access to restricted areas and be able to feed toucans, interact with other birds, and learn more about the conservation work being carried out at the sanctuary.
- For an invigorating adventure, embark on a half-day tour that plunges you into the heart of nature. Begin by tackling a 9km trail either on foot, by bicycle or in a jeep, continue by motorboat and complete the last 2km rowing an inflatable kayak.

- Set off on an exclusive First Light nature walk, when the park is closed to outside visitors, and discover the magic of a new day with Belmond and Leica Sport Optics. Encounter birds and coatis to a thundering soundtrack of 275 cascades.

BEYOND FOZ DO IGUASSU

The pulsating city of Rio de Janeiro is just two hours away by plane. Here, facing the world's most famous beach, you'll find our timeless and glamorous hotel, Belmond Copacabana Palace.

Further afield, you can easily combine a stay in Brazil with a stay in Peru. For a breathtaking, whirlwind tour taking in the best of South America, stay two nights in Rio, two nights in Iguassu, a night in the exciting Peruvian capital, Lima, and two nights in Cusco, gateway to Machu Picchu of South America.
