TUSCANY

WITHIN OUR WALLS

Join us all year round for a variety of vineyard tours, tastings and dinners in and around the hotel, or a private tour of some of the country's most prestigious wineries, including Icario, Le Macchie and Querciabella.

OUT AND ABOUT

Adjacent to our hotel are the vineyards where Italy's celebrated Brunello di Montalcino is produced. For wine lovers, a visit to the cellars and vineyards is a must.

Borrow one of our bikes and ride off through the meadows and tree-lined roads crisscrossing the estate. Venture further afield to Mensano, Radicondoli, Casole d'Elsa and Monterigioni for exciting terrain, or embark on an ambitious half-day trip to San Gimignano and Colle di Val d'Elsa.

We have mountain bikes, electric bikes, tandem bikes and even vintage bikes for those perfect Instamoments. In October, you might catch the "L'Eroica" (Heroic) cycle race that passes through our roads – a fun spectacle, as riders clad in vintage attire pedal on bikes dating from 1987 or earlier.

As our hotel nestles in a nature reserve, there are many animals to be spotted. Join our ranger on a jeep safari at sunrise or sunset to glimpse deer, porcupine, wild boar, pheasant, foxes and hares.

BEYOND TUSCANY

When it's time to venture beyond our estate, enjoy tailor-made activities and stunning attractions close to home, or hop on our courtesy shuttle bus to visit Siena, Florence and our celebrated sister hotel, Belmond Villa San Michele.

Or combine your stay in Tuscany with one of our other Belmond properties in Italy. Choose from the iconic Belmond Hotel Cipriani in Venice to Belmond Hotel Splendido in charming Portofino, Belmond Hotel Caruso, perched high on a cliff above the Amalfi Coast, and our two sumptuous Sicilian properties, Belmond Grand Hotel Timeo and Belmond Villa Sant'Andrea.

Further afield, you can easily combine a stay in Italy with a stay in Spain or Portugal, visiting Belmond La Residencia in Mallorca and Belmond Reid's Palace in Madeira, the island of eternal spring.
