NOBLE IN STYLE, ELEGANT IN SPIRIT

At the Place de Neige, in the very centre of Val d'Isère, an edifice of stone and wood takes pride of place at the edge of the ski slopes, defying the majestic summits of the Vanoise mountains.

New jewel of Airoles, Mademoiselle invites those enamoured with the mountains to live their own fairy tale at an altitude of 1850m.

Directly at the base of the slopes, 'Mademoiselle's' lofty silhouette magnifies the landscape while simultaneously blending in perfectly with the emblematic architectural codes of Val d'Isère's traditional village: grey stone walls, shale roof, wood trimming.

The hotel nonetheless imprints its splendid difference immediately, a new and unmissable landmark.

Its atmosphere that is both understated and lavish provides the perfect balance between luxurious intimacy and grandiose volumes, for an absolutely unparalleled experience of the art of mountainside living.

A storybook world full of fantasy, where nothing has been left to chance, to share unforgettable moments together with friends and family.

GOURMET PLEASURES

Le VI

Subtle blend between the finesse of delicacies and the generosity of the buffet, Le VI brings the most gourmets together to enjoy the present time. With its prestigious wine menu, Le VI welcomes its guests each evenings.

La Terrasse du VI

For a sunbathe over 860m², La Terrasse du VI is the ideal venue on the occasion of a lunch or an afternoon at the feet of the slopes. This iconic place with its amazing view over the snow-covered mountains welcomes you for a unique moment to the rhythm of the live music.

Le Carnotzet

Real tribute to cheese lovers, Le Carnotzet honours regional specialties and local produces. With its warm decor, it's the promise of a total immersion in the heart of the traditional « Savoyarde atmosphere ».
