

Sample Incentive Itineraries at The RCH

Why the City of Bath?

Sophisticated in Style & Rich in Culture

Built for Pleasure and Relaxation

As one of Great Britain's most beautiful cities,
Bath is often seen as the jewel of the South West.
With its breath-taking scenery, elegant Georgian architecture and buzzing social scene, Bath packs a punch when it comes to reasons to hold your event in our city.

An Incentive Trip Tailored for Couples

(All offering the flexibility to mix & match activities)

A Residential Meeting Combined with Teambuilding Activities (based on a 3 day stay)

Day One

- Half day meeting on arrival in The Sheridan, followed by a 2 course working lunch in The Montagu Room
- Afternoon spent by Pulteney Weir to partake in paddle boarding and a team challenge to build a bridge over the River Avon
- Free time to enjoy The Spa & Bath House and our fitness room facilities
- Cocktail flight demonstration prior to a 3 course dinner in one of our beautiful function rooms

Day Two

- Half day meeting in The Sheridan Room
- Lunch at The Marlborough Tavern, a traditional British pub, located at the end of the Royal Crescent
- Afternoon spent on the exclusive Crescent Lawn pursuing both physical and mental team activities or for a more relaxed option, a visit to the Bath Gin Distillery with the opportunity to both make and taste different gin based cocktails
- End the evening with a drinks and canapé reception in Bath's very own Fashion Museum, followed by a private dinner in the Card Room which dates back to 1777, both rooms are housed in the magnificent Assembly Rooms.

Day Three

- Morning spent exploring the City of Bath with the Da Vinci Code Quest, a historical team building adventure that will set teams on a frantic quest filled with riddles and intrigue, enabling attendees to explore what the city has to offer.
- A Royal Crescent Hotel packed lunch in the afternoon, as the delegates will be transferred to the Cotswolds, the West Country's beautiful countryside, for some fresh air and an alternative perspective of what England has to offer
- The evening will start with a pint of British ale in a traditional country pub, followed by dinner in an award winning quintessentially English gastro-pub, before the coach returns them back to the hotel for their last night's stay

An Informal Executive Level Corporate Gathering (based on a 3 day stay)

Day One

- Short welcome gathering in The Sir Percy Blakeney Suite with coffee, tea and pastries and savoury bagels. Followed by a game of golf at one of Bath's many scenic clubs
- Lunch back at the hotel with an informal buffet style setting
- Afternoon spent playing a traditional game of cricket on the exclusive Crescent Lawn
- An evening BBQ in our one acre of secluded garden with live acoustic music

Day Two

- A 40 minute transfer to the village of Lacock, famous for being the location of the Harry Potter films, for a range of traditional British outdoor pursuits – archery, clay pigeon shooting, axe throwing and air rifles
- Lunch at a traditional country pub, to sample local fare and the best of British ale
- Afternoon spent at the Castle Combe race circuit for a driving course experience with qualified professionals
- Return to the hotel for some free time in The Spa & Bath House before partaking in a wine tasting experience with Jean-Marc, our award-winning head sommelier and dinner in The Dower House

Day Three

- Morning transfer to the Cotswolds, the quintessential British countryside and time spent in the old English pursuit of Hawking
- Lunch at an award-winning gastropub, followed by a visit to a Blacksmith to watch a demonstration of Saxon sword making
- Transfer back to Bath to experience a savoury afternoon tea in the hotel's garden, a gastronomic experience exclusively offered at The Royal Crescent Hotel
- A visit to the James Street Brewery for a short tour of the brewing process followed by the opportunity to sample Bath's very own ales
- A relaxed dinner at one of Bath's many city centre based restaurants to enjoy their seasonal dishes in a relaxed setting, before returning to the hotel for their last night's stay

An Incentive Trip for Couples (based on a 3 day stay)

- A welcome gathering in The Walled Garden with teas, coffees and a selection of pastries and savoury bagels
- Followed by an array of activities for both ladies and gentlemen – golf, Segway rides, a hot air balloon trip or a relaxing treatment at The Spa & Bath House, followed by lunch at the Marlborough Tavern, a traditional British pub, located at the end of the Royal Crescent
- A group tour of the City of Bath with Jamie and his 'Laugh at Bath' tour with a stop at Sally Lunn's to sample Bath's famous 'Bath Buns'
- An evening cocktail masterclass with Jean-Marc, our award-winning Head Sommelier and a fine dining experience in one of beautiful function rooms

- Another opportunity to take part in a different activity – a Bath sky-line walk, a panoramic view of Bath from the Bath Abbey Towers, a cheese making experience, glass blowing at Bath Aqua or a game of cricket on the lawn
- A Royal Crescent Hotel packed lunch in the afternoon, as the delegates will be transferred by coach to the Cotswolds, the West Country's beautiful countryside, for some fresh air and an alternative perspective of what England has to offer.
- Dinner in an award-winning quintessentially English gastro-pub, before the coach returns them back to the hotel

Day Three

- Free time to explore the City's many art galleries, architectural experiences or simply to do some last minute shopping in Bath's array of independent shops. Alternatively an opportunity to spend time in The Spa & Bath House
- An informal buffet lunch in our one acre of private gardens or The Dower House Restaurant
- A 30 minute coach transfer to Bristol to explore Brunel's iconic SS Great Britain ship located in the city centre's Victorian dockyard
- A farewell torch-lit reception at The Roman Baths which dates back to AD60s, followed by a private dinner at the 'Aquae Sulis', part of The Roman Baths complex which has been set aside to celebrate those who lived and visited 'The Spa Town of Hot Springs'
