OPATIJA

Convention destination with history

www.opatija-convention.com

Dear Guests and Business Partners,

It is a great pleasure to present to you Opatija, a town that over the years has hosted numerous international congresses but also some very important national events. Its favourable geographic position, excellent transport connections, and the wide range of congress venues it offers are the key reasons why Opatija is today one of the leading convention destinations in Croatia.

When presenting Opatija as a congress town, it should be pointed out that our business partners have a wide range of venues at their disposal, ranging from historic ballrooms, hotel halls with a capacity of up to 500 participants and outdoor amphitheatres, to modern premises such as our Gervais Centre. With more than 30 hotels, most of which are categorised with four or five stars, a range of first-class restaurants, and a variety of recreational and wellness facilities, our town can provide everything congress organisers need to hold top projects and presentations. For larger conventions with around 1,000 participants, there is also our Marino Cvetković Sports Hall.

Participants at our business meetings often praise the fact that in Opatija everything is accessible on foot, and they are especially impressed by our greenery. The pride of our town – its spacious, well-manicured parks and gardens, the 10-km-long coastal promenade, and the numerous beaches and fountains – provide the perfect setting for villas and hotels that can accommodate up to 9,000 visitors.

In addition to the business infrastructure, many organisers emphasise their satisfaction with the culinary offer and various dishes with fresh local ingredients such as wild asparagus, cherries, sweet chestnuts, or the well-known Kvarner scampi, which are offered in our restaurants.

The tradition of health tourism in Opatija dates back more than 130 years, which is why Opatija is a great place for hosting professional congresses of all branches of medicine. We are proud of the achievements of our Thalassotherapy, a special hospital for the rehabilitation and treatment of heart and lung diseases, which has extensive experience in rehabilitation medicine, as well as having excellent experts and programmes.

Opatija is a pleasant place to live. The town's offer is complemented by its hinterland and Učka Nature Park, which offers numerous opportunities for incentive programmes, team building activities, and sports and recreational programmes.

We would be glad to help you organise your event.

See you in Opatija, and welcome!

Fernando Kirigin
Mayor of Opatija

Welcome!

Opatija, often called the 'Pearl of the Adriatic', is one of Croatia's most famous tourist destinations, with a tradition stretching back more than 175 years. It is located on the coast at the foot of the green slopes of Mount Učka. Opatija is a town of culture, festivals and artists, flowers and parks, sports and various events.

Its benefits were first discovered back in the 19th century by Iginio Scarpa, a merchant from Rijeka. His Villa Angiolina, which he built here in 1844 and named after his late wife, paved the way for the development of tourism in Opatija.

The Hotel Kvarner was opened in 1884, and the rest is history. Other hotels, sanatoriums and guest houses followed soon afterwards, and Opatija became a meeting point for the Central European elite: writers A. P. Chekhov and James Joyce, composer Gustav Mahler, Emperor Franz Joseph, and many other princes and princesses, poets and artists used to stay here.

After World War Two, Opatija started a new chapter in its history. It became an all-year-round destination, whose combination of top-quality accommodation, leisure and congress facilities, varied events and excellent restaurants has rightly earned it the title of a 21st-century destination.

This is a town of well-tended parks and urban culture, but above all a tourist resort that caters to its guests' wishes in every way. It is therefore not surprising that Opatija remains a destination offering many advantages for summer holidays, wellness breaks, weekend getaways, and conference events all year round.

1844: The construction of the Villa Angiolina marks the beginning of tourism in Opatija

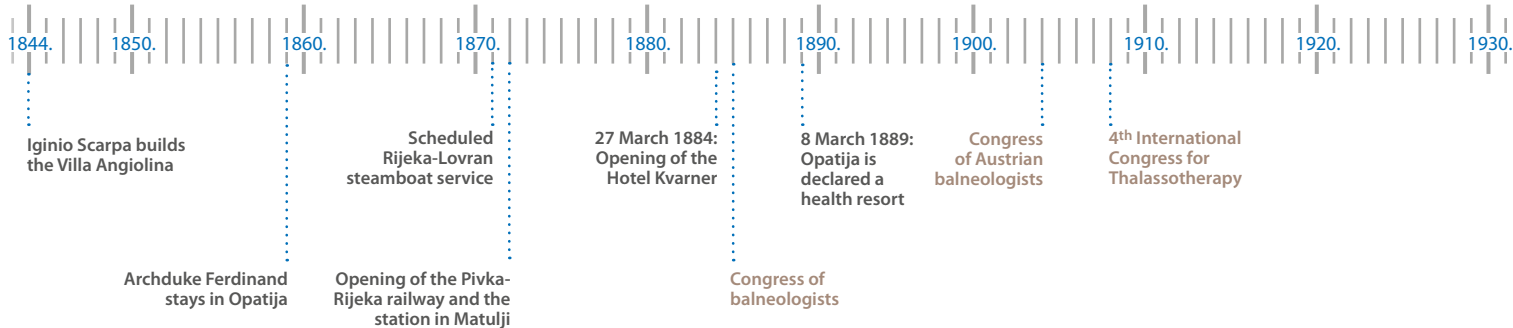

1908: International Congress for Thalassotherapy

1914: Signing of the pact between Austria-Hungary and Italy

1933: Italian National Hotel and Tourism Congress

Science and research

Opatija is a town surrounded by many scientific facilities, which provides an excellent basis for the organisation of specialist conferences and symposiums. The University of Rijeka, the central institution for education and research in Primorje-Gorski Kotar County, is the area's main research centre, and has implemented the Research Infrastructure for Campus-based Laboratories at the University of Rijeka project since 2015. The project, whose goal is to improve the research infrastructure of centres and laboratories located within the campus, is the result of the University's endeavours to actively participate in the community, all the while facilitating research that will involve the economic sector and its current surroundings at the local, national and international levels.

Three university research centres have been developed as part of the project (the Centre for High Throughput Technology, the Centre for Micro and Nano Sciences and Technologies, and the Centre for Advanced Computing and Modelling), as well as several Faculty of Civil Engineering laboratories (the Hydraulic Laboratory, Geotechnical Laboratory, Laboratory for Transportation Engineering, Laboratory for Materials, and Construction Laboratory).

The state-of-the-art equipment installed in the research centres has resulted in the achievement of excellence in development, innovation and research at the national level. The practical research conducted here connects science with industry, which in the future should influence the development of the economy in general. Besides the University as a whole, the Faculty of Medicine in Rijeka is also significant when it comes to tourism. Through its educational programmes, it is a partner in the implementation of professional and scientific projects, particularly with regard to the development of health tourism.

We should also mention Thalassotherapia Opatija as one of the most respected health tourism institutions not only in Kvarner but in the wider area. This institution was established in 1958 and has been the Reference Centre for Health Tourism and Medically Programmed Holidays since 1998. The professional activities of the Reference Centre are carried out in accordance with modern standards in diagnostic and therapeutic procedures and are constantly intertwined with scientific research and educational activities.

When all these aspects are taken into account, Opatija is a destination with an exceptional background when it comes to connecting science and tourism.

Incentive & team building

Opatija and its surroundings offer plenty of opportunities for organising incentive and team-building programmes, regardless of whether you enjoy adrenaline sports, are interested in learning more about local history, or simply want to spend an active day in the open air.

Mount Učka is a perfect location for numerous activities, be it a walk that will introduce the participants to orienteering and the surrounding nature while admiring fantastic views of Kvarner Bay and Istria, or a relaxing yet challenging bike ride on Učka's green slopes.

A kayak ride from Opatija to Lovran is not only a great sport activity but also an excellent opportunity to admire the view of the area's most beautiful attractions from the sea with the sound of nothing but paddling in the background. When it comes to team-building activities, there are hardly any limits to what you can do. Those who wish to strengthen their muscles and learn something new can try out free climbing at Medveja, Mošćenička Draga and Brseč.

Another great option for all ages is the Traditional Sports Olympics, where you can try different local games such as tug of war or tossing horseshoes. In this way, you'll learn about old Croatian sports and customs connected with competitions and get-togethers. The history of Opatija also provides a good basis for team-building programmes. You can learn more about Opatija's history, and experience its atmosphere in the company of local figures such as fishermen, washerwomen and sailors. A photo safari is a team-building game in which participants search for motifs from old photographs in the present town and discover how they look today.

In the hinterland of Opatija a knight will take you for a walk through medieval town of Veprinac or you can visit one of the family farms, to taste their products and to get acquainted with their way of life.

Before, during and after your business event offer your participants interesting tours and excursions. Opatija Riviera, region capital Rijeka, Kvarner Bay islands or one of national and nature parks are just a small fraction of the options. Offer also includes a multi-day thematic cruises along the Adriatic coast.

Cuisine

Opatija is a destination offering a superb dining experience. Excellent restaurants across the Opatija Riviera offer some of the best specialities of local and national cuisine. Their chefs prepare a variety of culinary delicacies using local ingredients and combining traditional dishes with innovative variations of modern cuisine.

Each season in Opatija has its own specialities that are always interesting and creative: asparagus and cherries in the springtime, and sweet chestnuts from the Lovran area in the autumn.

Homemade skuta curd cheese and other types of cheese, fresh fish from the Adriatic, scampi and shellfish, Istrian pršut dry-cured ham – these can all be enjoyed in Opatija for a perfect culinary experience. Some of the finest Croatian restaurants are located on the Opatija Riviera, a fact recognised by the world's leading restaurant guides like Gault Millau and Michelin. You can also pick your dining venue based on the 'Kvarner Gourmet' and 'Kvarner Food' labels, which are assigned by the Kvarner County Tourism Office.

The Opatija Riviera is interesting in each season and we warmly recommend you take your time to visit this area and let yourself be impressed!

Excursions

Opatija is the perfect starting point for day trips to some of the region's most attractive destinations, the most prominent being the Plitvice Lakes National Park, a natural phenomenon consisting of 16 interconnected lakes, which has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1979.

A perfect way to experience Kvarner Bay and Opatija is to take a boat trip. You can sail along the Riviera's coastline or continue to the island of Cres, where you can observe griffon vultures or taste fish prepared in the traditional way on a fish picnic.

Located on the southern tip of the Istrian peninsula is Brijuni National Park, with its Roman ruins, exhibitions in President Tito's former residence, a zoo with exotic animals, and an 18-hole golf course.

Rovinj's most distinctive landmark is the famous Church of St. Euphemia, Pula is renowned for its well-preserved Roman amphitheatre, whose construction began in the 1st century under the Emperor Vespasian, while Poreč is known for its Euphrasian Basilica, another UNESCO World Heritage Site.

A culinary tour of Istria, which typically includes visits to typical konoba-style taverns or wine cellars where you can sample wine, cheese and pršut dry-cured ham, is a perfect experience for every food and wine lover. The Istrian peninsula is also known for its black and white truffles.

On the island of Krk, visitors can try the indigenous žlahtina wine in the small town of Vrbnik or visit the beautiful small island of Košljun, which has a Franciscan monastery.

Venice, a wonderful destination for a day trip to Italy, is only two hours' drive from Opatija. Its squares, bridges, gondolas and churches will surely amaze all globetrotters.

Gorski Kotar, the wooded hinterland of Kvarner, also features some extraordinarily sights, such as Risnjak National Park, which covers an area of 64 km² and features the 4.5 km-long Leska educational trail, Kamačnik Gorge, the Zeleni Vir protected landscape, Lake Lokve, and Lake Bajer near Fužine.

Another interesting destination for a day trip is Croatia's capital, Zagreb. Its historic old town, the famous Grič cannon and Illica Street – these are just a few of this beautiful city's sights that should not be missed.

Rijeka, Croatia's most important port, is a town with a rich history, young spirit and open-minded residents. Visit its Old Town, the main Korzo promenade, or the Trsat area with its fortress. Let us not forget the trips to Opatija's nearby medieval hilltop towns of Kastav, Mošćenice and Veprinac, former centres of social events, and today witnesses to the area's rich history and the way people used to live here. Finally, Učka Nature Park offers an exceptional combination of natural landmarks and historical heritage.

Opatija has blended traditional advantages such as a favourable climate, beautiful nature and numerous opportunities for sports and recreation with modern health care institutions and spa and wellness centres. All this is presented by the Oasis of Health and Wellness programme through spring and autumn.

Excellent bands perform at different locations in the town, ensuring an excellent atmosphere.

The venue for a variety of concerts, musicals, operas and festivals, Opatija's Open Air Theatre is a must-see place for guests in search of great entertainment programmes. On several occasions during the year, Opatija plays host to a series of classical music concerts by talented musicians.

Enjoy a fascinating Advent by the sea in the festive atmosphere of Opatija. Luxuriously decorated streets and squares, an ice skating rink, and various musical and theatrical performances at numerous magnificent locations are just a small part of the enchanting Advent in Opatija programme.

On the sweetest weekend of the year, the first weekend in December, chocolate lovers have the opportunity to enjoy the fantastic flavours of chocolate desserts in one place. Opatija's Chocolate Festival offers a wide range of delicious chocolate specialities that will surely delight you.
