OUR NETWORK

Indochina Heritage Group is proud of our unique business model in the Indochina region. Whereas most companies in this industry source their products from different third-party regional operators, we are a single-source locally-based company delivering services in both travel and MICE, with our own events team and original training & teambuilding products unavailable elsewhere. Our strategically-based offices give us a broad capacity to conduct our unique programs throughout the Indochinese region, covering north, central and South Vietnam, and the best of Cambodia and Laos with bases in the historic home of Angkor Wat – Siem Reap – and in the exotic temple region surrounding Luang Prabang.
